

International Conference on Municipal Government

Sponsored by:

CITY OF HOLLYWOOD, FLORIDA

INSTITUTE OF COOPERATION FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT OF SPAIN (ICODES)

ANA G. MENDEZ UNIVERSITY SYSTEM (South Florida Campus)

September 9-10, 2008

Ana G. Méndez University System (South Florida Campus)
3520 Enterprise Way, Miramar Park of Commerce, Miramar, FL 33025

The purpose for this conference is to exchange successful experiences between municipal administrations from Spain, the United States, Puerto Rico and Dominican Republic.

Speakers and panel members will include experts in municipal government, particularly in the areas of Urban Planning, Transportation (including airports), Green Initiatives, Finances, Taxes, Municipal Organization and Human Resources.

The conference is geared toward mayors, commissioners and other elected officials, city managers, city department and office directors, entrepreneurs, students, members of professional and business associations.

For more information, please contact the City of Hollywood
Office of Community & International Affairs at: (954) 921-3030
or Ana G. Méndez University System

at: (954) 885-5595

Translation Services (Spanish & English) will be provided